"Friday evening.

"Dear, Dear heart of mine! I am a lonely, lonely boy tonight - Fog all day today. I could not get to Seal Harbor & I know there are letters waiting there for me & I want them! I shall go over tomorrow anyway. You see this is our situation here:

"Yesterday a party of us went to S.W. Harbor & climbed one of the mountains there so I had no chance to go to Seal Harbor then. I thought surely today would be a good day. But the fog set in - so this morning I waited for the afternoon & then the fog was thicker than ever. Tonight - thick fog, but the wind has shifted to the west so I think it will be clear. Today I took advantage of the fog to finish up the cards to the Parish so they are in the mail and will go out tomorrow.

"I enclose 2 clippings - keep them & we can discuss them after we read the book which I will get as soon as I get back.

"Darling, one week from today! Only 7 more days- & I cannot wait until Friday night - I must see you Friday afternoon - so our road at 2:30 next Friday. If any unforeseen event makes it necessary to change I will send word as soon as I reach N.B.- which will probably be at 10:23 or 12:19 - If I do get there at 10:23. I will let you know anyway that I am back - oh dearest what patience we have had-! But the agony will be forgotten when I look into those dear eyes again. - Goodnight beloved- every blessing for you - only help me to be strong and patient until we are in each other's arms again. My whole heart's love, darling.

Ever devotedly,
